Over the last month there has been some information put out that there is a crime problem in the Kroger Center. During the month of May, there was one attempted purse theft and three vehicles broken into. Sadly, this is not unusual in a parking lot of this size in the Houston area. In all of the vehicle break-ins, property was left in plain view in the vehicle. Criminals look for easy targets, and a purse or backpack left in a vehicle while you are shopping is just too tempting. This crime is easily prevented. Do not leave any items in your vehicle while you are away from it. In the purse theft, the criminal opened the victim's passenger door and attempted to take the purse from the front passenger seat. The victim grabbed the purse and the black male suspect eventually let go and fled in a black Toyota Corolla with paper plates. This is obviously more crime than we would like, but the center is not a dangerous location.
